

Philosophy of Education

The mission and vision statements of Tri-State Christian School are based on the educational presuppositions stating that all truth is God's truth, the Christian Bible, as God's inspired Word, was given as a guide for faith and practice, and an effective Christian education integrates biblical truth and principles into all classroom teaching and all school related activities.